(NOT A WHISKY PREPARATION.)

NEW STORE!

NEW FIRM! NEW GOODS!

NO. 7 GWYNNE BLOCK

An Entire New Stock!

GREAT VARIETY OF

FANCY GOODS:

Consisting in part of Embroideries, Real Laces, Crimmings, Handkerchiefs, Siles. Dres Goo Marseilles, Piques, Percales, Organ Chintzes. Alpa Caston Uloths, Figured Poplins, Grenadines (Plain and Facey), Dres Goods, Piques, Organdies

Balmoral Skirting

and Trimming, French and Sootch Ginchams. A arge and choice assortment of all the above and many other kinds.

Tweeds for Boys' Suits, Summer Goods for Boys' Wear, Table Linens, a great variety, Counterysnes, Linen Sheeting, Craile and Crib Counterpanes, Curtains,

Usually Found in First-Class Houses 2/V BSGAGG

GLOVES, HOSIERY,

A SPECIALITY. We particularly invite attention to the stock of Hosierv Mitts, &c., &c.

MASKE BEGINNING SOLE AGENTS FOR

Harris' Seamless Kid Gloves.

For color, qualit. &c., this Glove has no rival, Every pair warranted to give satisfaction. Believing it the best way of doing business to sell for Cash, and also for the interest of the pur-chaser, we have determined to do a

A.P. & G. S. LEWIS NO. 7 GWYNNE BLOCK.

NAUCHTON'S

STORE.

TAMES NAUGHTON WISHESTO REturn than's to the patrons of the above well known store, and to solid a continuance of their favors. Being sole proprietor of the building as well as business, he can afford to sell for a much lower profit than any house in town, and customers can depend upon finding at all times a good stock of seasonable goods, and will receive such prompt attention at the hends of his clerks and assistants as will assure visitors to his establishment that they are in deed dealing in a

First Class Store, Where can always be found, GOODS, SHAWLS, CASSIMERES, LADIES' CLOAKS OF OUR OWN MAKE.

Also, Hosiery and Fancy Goods of every description JAMES NAUGHTON, 118 and 122 South High Street, feb2e COLUMBUS, OHIO.

DWINT MILLINERY.

MR. A. P. WARE, No. 258 South High Street, and No. 271 North High Street,

TAKES GREAT PLEASURE IN AN-nouncing to the ladies, here and elsewhere, that he has just received a large and well selected stock of the choicest RIBBONS, FLOWERS, STRAW GOODS, HATS and BONNETS of the newest styles and all varieties, MOUNNING BONNETS, FANCY ARTICLES, &c., &c.,

To which he invites attention, and which he will be most happy to shiw to all who may favor him with a call. A sung-lady from New York, whose elegant taste commended her for the position, has special supervision throughout the Establishment, and will be pleased to wait upon the Ladies.

Mr. Ware is beling Yashionable Bonnets at prices ranging from $4 to $10; and will not be undersold on anything by anybody.

april-dif

WM. MONYPENNY,

. Forwarding & Commiss'n Merchant,

GRAIN OF ALL KINDS,

FLOUR, WHISKY, &c., Wishes To INFORM THE PUBLIC that he has just sompleted the large and conyunletding proof brick Warehouse on the west side of the Scioto river, pear the west end of the NaTIP tional Bridge. He is now prepared to pay the highest market price in CASh for all the Corn, Wheat, Rye, Barley, Oats, Ac., that may be offered. Being favorably located with the river on one side and the Railroad track on the other side of the House, will say particular attaction to receiving and forwarding all kinds or protection to receiving and these cast, advances on consignments of producegoing ather easy or west.

Office on Frank st. close to Warehouse WM. MONYPENNY

A. C. HEADLEY & CO NEW COODS!

ARE NOW OPENING

VERY DESIRABLE

DRESS COODS!

NEW AND ORIGINAL DESIGNS

EMBROIDERIES & LACES,

CLOAK, MANTILLA AND DRES

TRIMMINGS!

PARASOLS

SUN UMBRELLAS

---AND---

A FULL LINE OF GENTS'

FURNISHING GOODS

ALSO, A COMPLETE STOCK OF

DOMESTIC GOODS.

250 & 252

SOUTH HIGH STREET.

-ALSO-STRICTLY CASH BUSINESS. SOLE AGENTS IN THIS CITY

For the sale of A. K. YOUNG'S celebrated BON TON HOOP SKIRT!

Adopted by Messrs, A. T. Stewart & Co., of New York, for their retail trade, to the exclusion of all Books & Stationery. JOS. H. RILEY & CO., WHOLESALE AND RETAIL BOOKSELLERS & STATIONERS.

NO. 199 SOUTH HIGH STREET, UNION BLOCK,

Columbus, Ohio.

Constantly on hand all the leading Law, Medical and School Books;

A full and complete assortment of BLANK BOOKS & STATIONERY.

Paper Hangings,

Borders, Window Shades, Paintings, Pierures, and Pleture Frames, &c., &c., WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

LITHOGRAPHING, JOB PRINTING AND BINDING Railroads, Banks and Insurance Companie, upplied. upoh7-3m

ALFRED RITSON N. B. MARPLE. MARPLE & RITSON. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

DRUCCISTS 100 SOUTH RIGH STREET,

Columbus, Ohio, Where also may be found a full assortment of FANCY TOILET ARTICLES. NOTIONS AND PROPRIETORY MEDICINES, Pure Wines and Spirits-

The Prescription Department Is replete in all the new Medical Dispoveries of the day, and is under the immediate supervision of the unior partner. mohle-dem

For Medicinal pury oses,

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

AUDITOR'S OFFICE, FRANKLYN CO., COLUMBUS, O., April 19, 1866. SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RE-

May 20th, 1886, for building an addition to the County Infirmary.— Plans and specifications can be seen at this office on and after the first day of May, 1868. Bigs will be and after the first day of May, 1866. Bins will be received for excavation, stone majority, brick masonry, carpenter work and plattering reparately, or for the entire work. The stone to be contracted for by the perch, the brink by the thousand, the excavation by the said the Commissioners reserving the right to reject any or all of the bids.

DENNIS B. STRAIT.

JAMES W. HARREE.
JOHN M. KOERNER.

Commissioners.

NEW COODS!

ARRIVING DAILY

RICHARDS & HOLMES,

183 SOUTH HIGH STREET.

Consisting of

Lawns,
Urape Maretz,
Chintzes,
Calinoes,
Marr Girghams, Girques,

Also, a full assortment of

WHITE GOODS! LACES! EMBROIDERIES

A full line of Black Rep Silks for Mantles Foulards and Plain and Fancy Dress Silks.

Also, the Latest Styles of CLOAKS! SHAWLS &c., &c.

Particular attention paid to the selection of our DOMESTIC GOODS.

121 SOUTH HIGH ST.,

MERCHANT TAILORS

AND DEALERS IN

GOODS FOR GENTLEMEN'S WEAR,

Invite attention to their fine assortment of

SPRING COODS,

Now opening, and to which accessions will be made daily through the season, embracing English and Scotch Suitings,

Spring Overcosting, French and English Broadcloths, Nopsacks and Bannockburn Suitings. Yorkshire Meltons, French Coatings, Marseilles, Silk and Cashmere Vestings, &c., &c., &c.

Remember that we keep a better class of goods than any other house in the city, and make our garments in the very best and most fa-bionable manner. Therefore, we say that our goods are cheaper than those made by any other house East or West.

FURNISHING GOODS,

In great variety. Ag'ts for Ballou French Yoke Shirts

SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER. Youths, Boys and Children's Clothing, Cheap apr'30-codly-r

Taylor, O'Harra & Co.,

UNDERTAKERS,

No. 98 South Third Street, Opposite the First Presbyterian Church.

THEY ARE THE SOLE AGENTS FOR Shuler's Celebrated Wrought Iron

Galvanized Caskets & Cases. -ALSO-Raymond, Crane, Breed & Co.'s

Metalic Cases and Caskets. Wood Caskets and Cases always on hand. Country Undertakers supplied on short notice. Hearses and Carriages to accend tunerals at all

B. H. GARDNER CHARLES HUSTON. Huston & Cardner,

DRUGGISTS. Door North of the Postoffice, NEIL HOUSE BLOCK, Have greatly enlarged their Stock of Drugs. Medicines, Perfumery,

Tollet & Fancy Goods, Patent Medicines, And are now prepared to suit the wants of all. Spe-cial attention is invited to their large and complete stack of Pert mery, Soaps, &c., which is excelled by none in the city, either in quantity or quality.— Also, to their unsurpassed attack of

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS DEBRETTY! DEBRETTY!! Resulting from any cause whatever. H

Prostration of the system, induced by Severe Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, of Diseases of Camp Lafe. Soldiers, Uitizens, Male or Female, Adult or Youth, will find in this Bitters a pure Tonic, not dependent on bad liquors for their almost miracu-lous effects.

Dyspensia and diseases resulting from Disorders of the Liver and Dignettive Organs, are cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. This Bitters has per-formed more Cures, gives better satisfaction, has m re testimony, has more respectable people to wouch for it, than any other article in the market. 0

We defy any one to contradict this assertion, and will pay $1,000 to any one who will produce a ce ti-ficate published by us that is not genuine. Hoof-land's German Bitters will cure every case of Chron-ic or Nervous Debility, and Diseases of the Kid-F

Observe the following symptoms resulting from disorders of the digestive organs: Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nauses, Heartburn, Diegnet for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Sufforating Sensations when in a lying Posture Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, F ver or Dult Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Kras, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest Limbs & Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesp, Constant imaginings of Evil, and great Depression of Spirits.

L Remember, that this Bitters is not Alchoholic ontains no Rum or Whisky, and cannot make trunkards, but is the best Tonic in the World,-Keng who says so:

Read who says so:

(From Rev. W. D. Seigfried. Pastor of Twelfth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.)

Gentlemen:—I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of Indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested, but without relief. Your Hoodland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of these Bitters induced me to try them.—I must et nices that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines from the "thousand and one" quanch "Bitters," whose only aim seems to be to paim off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the emmunity in a ters," whose only aim seems to be to palm of sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community in a sly way, and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drankard. Upon learning that yours was purely a medicinal preparation I took it with happy effect. Its action, not only upon the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gravifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles. Very respectfully yours,
W. D. SEIGFRIED, No. 254 Shackamaxon st.

(From the Rev. R. D. Fendall, Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia !

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my crivileze to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from General Debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the Liver. Yours truly, tFrom Rev. Wm. Smith, formerly Paster of the Vincentown and Millville, N. J., Baptist Churches. Having used in my family a number of bottles of your Hoofland's German Bitters, I have to say that I regard them as an excellent medicine, specially adapted to remove the discusses trey are recommended for. They strengthen and invigorate the system when debilitated, and are useful in disorders of the liver, loss of appetite, &c. I have a so recommended them to several of my friends, who have tried them, and found them greatly beneficial in the restoration of health. Yours truly, ars truly.

E. D. FENDALL.

WM. SMITH, 956 Hutch neon st., Philadelphia. D Beware of Counterfects. See that the signature "".'. M. JACKSON" is on the wrapper of each offic. Should your nearest druggist not have the article, do not be put off by any of the intoxicating prepartions that may be offered in its pace, but send to usand we will forward, securely packed, by express. Principal Office and Manufactory.

No. 631 Arch Street, Phi adelphia, Pa. (Successors to C. M. Jackson & Co.,) (Successors to C. M. Jackson & Co.,) Propri-tors.
For sale by Druggists and Dealers in every tow
the United States.

READY-MADE CLOTHING

Fifty per Cent. Cheaper than Heretofore.

GREAT REVOLUTION IN PRICES!

GOODS APPROACHING A GOLD BASIS!

JOSEPH GUNDERSHEIMER, MERCHANT TAILOR

AND WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN Ready - Made Clothing CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, TWEEDS, VESTINGS

AND GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, 75 SOUTH HIGH ST., (NEAR THE AMERICAN HOTEL)

PARES PLEASURE IN INFORMING TAKES PLEASURE 1 AVORANTAL his old customers and the general public that he has just returned from the Eastern cities with the largest and best selected stock of Ready-Made Clothing, Foreign and Domestic Cloths, Cassimeres, Tweeds, Jeans, Vestings of all kinds, slyles sod prices, and Gentlemens' Furnishing Goods, ever offered to the gaze of the public in the city of Columbus. These Goods were purchased during the unsettled cond tion of the Gold market, and when Eastern merchants were anxious to sell, and I can sell them.

FIFTY PER CENT. CHEAPER than those who bought a month or six weeks before. I can now sell suits for $25, which three months ago brought from $50 to $75; for $,0, which then brought from $75 to $100, or stabout the Same Prices as Before the War. Call and see my Goods and Prices, and satisfy yourselves.

To these who have favored me with their patronage in the past, I am thankful, and can new assure them that I can sell them thousat much lower prices.

The Merchant Tailoring Department is under the charge of Mr. J. B. FITZGERALD, whose reputation for neat fits and well made garments needs no comment, as the articles always advertise themcommon, so the selves.

P. S.—On the 1st day of July next I will remove to the Neil Hoese Bunding, into the fine room now occupied by Marcus Childs, where I will have increased facilities for the accommodation of my numerous friends.

ATA A fine assortment of Children's Clothing constantly ke t on hand.

J. G. NEIL. J. G. NEIL & CO., Real Estate Brokers, 37 EAST STATE STREET,

COLUMBUS, OHIO.

Negotiate Sales and Leases of Real Estate, oans on Mortgages, &c. may3 dom Imported and Domestic Cigars.

Physicians Prescriptions and Pamily Recipes parefully compounded.

Physicians Prescriptions and Pamily Recipes parefully compounded.

Columbus, April 2, 1866, app. H. D. Columbus, April 2, 1866, app. H. Columbus, April 2, 1866, app. H. D. Columbus, Ap

The Great Strengthening Tonic.

EVENINGS AT HOME.

A writer in the Ladies' Repository tells the following pleasant story:
The husband, greatly to the annovance of his young wife, had acquired the habit of spending his evenings away from home, and her earnest protest against his practice resulted in his agreement to stay in every evening for a week, and allow her to be absent. The result is what might be ex-pected in every case where true and strong affection exists between the husband and

Monday evening came, and George Wil-son remained true to his promise. His wife put on her bonnet and shawl, and he said he would remain home and keep house. "What will you do when I am gone?"

Emma asked. "O, I shall read, and sing, and enjoy myself generally."
"Very well," said Emma, "I shall be back early."

The wife went out and the husband was left alone. He had an interesting book, and he began to read it. He read till eight o'clock, and then he began to yawn, and looked frequently at the clock. The book did not interest him as usually. Ever and anon he would come to a passage which he knew would please his wife, and instinc-tively he turned as though he would read it aloud; but there was no wife to hear it. At half-past eight o'clock he arose from his chair and began to pace the floor and and played several of his favorite airs. After this he got a chess borad, and played a to start his game, game with an imaginary partner. Then he walked the floor and whistled again. Finally the clock struck nine, and his wife returned. "Well. George," said she, "I am back in good time. How have you enjoyed yourself?" "Capitally," returned the husband; "I had no idea it was so late. I hope you have enjoyed yourself?" "O, splendidly !" said the wife; "I had no idea how much enjoyment there was away from home. Home is such a dull place, after all, isn't it?"

"Why, no, I can't say that it is." returned George, carelessly, "In fact," he added, "I rather like it." "I am glad of that," retorted Emma, "for we shall have a nice comfortable week of George winced at this, but he kept his

On the next evening Emma prepared to go off again.
"I shall be back in good time," she said.

"Where are you going, Emma?" her husband asked. "O, I can't tell exactly; I may go to several places." So George Wilson was left alone again. and he tried to amuse himself as before, but he found it a difficult task. Ever and anon he would cast his eyes on that empty chair, and the thought would come, "How pleasant it would be if she were here!" The time has been when we would have taken great pleasure in breaking Mr. Henry Ward Beecher on a rack; but the course of the man since the termination of the war of listen for the steps of his wife.

"I declare," he muttered to himself, after he had listened for some time in vain, "this is too bad. She ought not to stay out so But he happened to remember that he often remained away much later than that, so he concluded to make the best of it.

At quarter to ten Emma came home, "A little late, am I not?" she said, looking up at the clock. "But I fell in with some old friends. How have you enjoyed "First rate," returned George, bravely. I think home is a capital place.

"Especially when a man can have it all to himself," added the wife, with a side-long glance at her husband. But he made On the next evening Emma prepared to go out as before; but this time she kissed her husband ere she went, and seemed to hesitate about leaving. "Where do you think of going?" George asked in an undertone. "I may drop in to see Uncle John." re-plied Emma. "However, you won't be uneasy. You will know I am safe. when left to his own reflections, he began to ponder seriously upon the subject thus presented for consideration. He could not read, he could not play or enjoy himself in any way, while the chair was empty. In short, he found that home had no real comfort without his wife. The one thing needful to make George Wilson's home pleasant was not present. parents loved her, brothers and sisters loved ner, and they did all they could to make her comfortable. After this he walked up and down the room several times, and then stopped again and communed with himself. "I can't stand this," said he, "I should die in a week. If Emma were here, I think I could amuse myself very well. How lone and dreary it is! And only eight o'clock! declare I've a mind to walk down as far as Uncle John's, and see it she is there. won't go in. She shan't know yet that I hold out so faintly."

George Wilson took another turn across the room, glanced once more at the clock. and then took his hat and went out, He then locked the door after him, and bent his steps towards Uncle John's.
It was a beautiful moonlight night, and air was keen and bracing. He was walking along with his eyes bent on the pavement, when he heard a light step approaching him. He looked up, and—he could not be mistaken—he saw his wife. His first impulse was to avoid her, but she had recognized him.

her husband.

be you?"
"It is," was the response. "And do you pass your evenings at "This is the first time I have been out?" Emma, upon my word, and even now I have not been absent from the house ten minutes. I merely came out to take the fresh air. But where are you going?"

"George," she said in surprise, "can this

"I am going home, George; will you go with me?" "Certainly," returned George She then took his arm and they walked home in silence.
When Emma had taken off her things, she sat down in her chair and looked at the clock on the wall. "You are home early to-night," remarked

The young wite looked up into her hus-band's face, and with an expression halfsmiling and half-tearful, she said: "I will confess the truth, George—I have given you the experiment. I managed to at and it last evening, but I could not bear it through to-night. When I thought of you here all alone I wanted to be with you. I left the alms house last summer, and the two, becoming very much attached to each other. decided to become man and wife. They It didn't seem right. I haven't enjoyed myself at all. I have not any home but of our Fire Department.

chair to his wife's side, and taking one of her hands.

"Then let me make my confession. have stood it not a whit better. When I left the house this evening I could bear it no longer. I found that this was no home for me while my wife was absent. I just thought I would walk down to Uncle John's and see your face, if possible. I had gazed upon your empty chair till my heart ached."

The next evening was spent at home by husband and wife, and it was a season of much enjoyment. In a short time George began to realize how much comfort was to be found in a quiet and peaceful home, and the longer he enjoyed the comfort, the more plainly did he see and understand the simple truth that it takes two to make a happy home, and if the wife is one party, the husband must be

[From the Mobile Tribune, May 5]. Northern Men.

The bitter hatred and utter detestation that we feel, and that we express at times, in these columns, against that incendiary and diabolical spirit that manifests itself among a large party at the North, must not be considered by the true men of Northern birth in our midst and elsewhere, as extending itself towards them. So far from having any intent to say ought that would, in the slightest degree, wound the sensibilitles of such men, the course that we have been pursuing and intend to pursue, of denouncing all shams and hypocricies wherever found, we feel certain will find a responding echo in the bosoms of these very men-even though our chief hunting whistle. Then he went and got his flute ground be in the Northern States. In that land the hunter of "shams" can never fail

> There are Northern men now in our midst who have been tried and have not been found wanting; who staked their wealth and their lives on the Confederate cause, and who still remain true to their adopted land in these her days of cloth and ashes." We could fill a column with the names of such men, even here in Mobile; we could fill numberless ones from the muster rolls of the armies of Lee and Johnston. Many of these men by perform-ing the duty they owed to the land of their adoption, have severed these ties that are dearest to the human heart—they have placed a gulf between themselves and their kindred. But they have bound to themselves warmer hearts in this Southern land of ours. Let the knowledge of that, and their consciousness of having done their duty, be a compensation for the sacrifices they have made.

But the denunciations of many things at countenance, and determined to stand it the North that will often appear in these columns, if things continue as they are now going, will not be aimed even at the Northern men whom we once considered our bitterest enemies. Under the new condition of things, which have brought usall once more under a common government. we consider it a duty, that we cannot with honor discard, to smoke the pipe of peace with any of our late enemies who make us a proffer of it. The time has been when we would have Ward Beecher on a rack; but the course of the man since the termination of the war of clock finally struck nine, and he began to the sword and cannon, and the resuming of the war of words, has been such as to entitle him to some respect and confidence And they should be freely given him, while we accept the proffer of reconciliation that he makes us. As with Mr. Beecher so with others like him. We speak of him as a representative of that class among whom stands Andrew Johnson-who, though not of Northern birth, was once Northern ough in all other respects to suit the most fastidious. Now, while under the new order of things, is our duty to treat men of that stamp with respect and confidence, it is equally our duty to keep alive in our bosoms the most implacable hatred towards those perured Radicals, who, not content with havng murdered our relatives and neighbors ov the swords of their mercenaries, are w set to work to assassinate our good names with their evil, slanderous tongues, General Grant.

[From the Augusta Constitutionalist.]

Our esteemed cotemporaries of the Atanta Intelligencer and Columbus Enquirer unite in an acknowledgment of General "Oh, certainly," said her husband; but Grant's friendliness of feeling toward the South. From certain most reliable information, lately put in our possession, we are induced to believe that this kindly disposition has not been overrated; and, in that impression, tender to the Lieutenant General our own sense of his humane and upright bearing. To his influence it is, we learn, that General Lee was not, by the base machinations of Radical tricksters, "I declare," he said to himself, "I did not think it would be so lonesome. And is great, At the first whisper of an intent can it be that she feels as I do when she is to annoy that gallant gentleman by prohere alone? It must be so; it is just as she ceedings in utter derogation of his parole, says. Before we were married she was deneral Grant, we are informed, at once very happy in her childhood's home. Her stated that were such atrocity committed. he would forthwith throw up a commission that could not then longer be retained without some degree of military dishonor. Through the person of their General com-manding the pledged faith of these United States would, by so willful a perfidy, have been grievously broken, and, though a past uncompromising enemy of that successful Captain, we now take a special pleasure in cording this our present testimony to his soldierly good faith.

above alluded to that har lly due justice was rendered General Grant by the people of the South, but we know this mention based on such irrefragible evidence-of his honest demeanor will go far to correct any deficiency in the rendition of honor where honor is due. Besides the case of Gen. Lee, venerabile et clarissimum nomen, it is also stated to us that, by a like course of action on the part of the Lieutenant General, Admiral Semmes was released from captivity and the Hon, C. C. Clay restored to the suppliations of a most anniable and devoted wife. "General Grant"-says our informant, whose name, might we mention it, would be recognized at once as that of a distinguished Georgia patriot and states-man—"is not disposed to oppress the South; on the contrary he is striving to lighten her burthen." For such generous intention— an intention that bears for us a sweet fruition already-the hero of the North may est assured he will be held by this people in kindly esteem. More, we know, he would not expect, for our hearts are with that past in which so many of our dearest fell before his legions, but on this at leasta meed prompted by justice and accorded in all sincerity-he may confidently rely.

It was said by one of our cotemporaries

One Woman Marries Another. The New Bedford Mercury gives the folowing: About a year ago a daughter of Major

Daniel Perry, who is somewhat deranged, disappeared, and, wandering off, was at last lodged in the Sullivan county, New York, alms house as a vagrant. Here she met another monomaniac, by the name returned to Abington, where they have lived in the bonds of wedlock, as supposed by the neighbors—Lucy, alias James Slater, "Say you so?" said George, moving his wearing male attire up to the present time. bull has been written. Donotless, it will be cent into Congress to day.

Democratic County Convention. The Democracy of Richland county met in Convention Saturday, May 5th, 1866, in pursuance of the call of the Chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee, for the purpose of appointing delegates to represent the Democracy of the county in the Democratic State Convention to be held in Columbus, May 24th, 1866. On motion of Jonas Smith, Hon. Hugh Gamble was called to the Chair, and T. B. Andrews appointed Vice President. On motion of Hon. S. S. Bloom. Col. James S. Orall was appointed Secretary.

On motion of Hon. S. S. Bloom, it was ordered that a committee of five be appointed to select delegates to attend the State Convention. The Chair appointed Messrs. S. S. Bloom, Wm. Bushnell, M. Day, E. Craig, and L. Swigart said committee. On motion of Jonas Smith, a committee consisting of Hon. B. Burns, Jonas Smith, R. Barnett, H. W. Patterson, and Jas. Thompson was appointed on resolutions. The committee on Delegates made the following report: Hon. B. Burns, Wm. Bushnell, M. May, Jno. Y. Glessner, H. W. Patterson, Geo. C. Howard, Jonas Smith, Jno. B. Netscher, John Krause, Robt Barnett, John Brandt, David Bushey, Amon Chew, M. McDermot, L. Swigart, T. B. Andrews, James Thompson, James Reed, Samuel Snyder, E. Cark. On motion of Hon. B. Burne, it was ordered that the names of Hon. S. S. Bloom, Col. James S. Crall and Capt. V. Gutzwiler, Jr., be added to the list of delegates. James E. Cox moved that the delegates have power to fill all vacancies. Jones Smith mov d to amend by requesting all D mocrats I on Richland county present at the convention to act as delegates. Motion as amended adopted. Col. B. Burns, from the committee on Resolutions, made the following report:

Resoluted. That the States whereof the people were lately in rebellion are integral parts of the Union, and are entitled to representation in Congress by men duly elect-ed, who bear true faith to the Constitution and laws, and that such representatives ought to be forthwith admitted.

Regolved. That each State has the exclusive right to regulate the qualification of its own citizens and determine who shall, and who shall not be entitled to the elective Resolved. That the bold, determined and manly enunciations of the principles of the Constitution and policy of restoration, contained in the annual message of President Johnson, the message vetoing the Freedmen's Bureau bill and the Civil Rights bill, meet our hearty approval, and entitle him to the gratitude, confidence and sup-port of all who respect the Constitution

Resolved, That the white race alone is entitled to the management and control of the Republic, and that as citizens of Onio we ere unwilling to grant to negroes the right to vote, and therefore we deem it unjust for Congress to force negro suffrage upon the people of the Southern States as a condi-and love their country.

tion precedent to their representation in ongress. Resolved. That the faith of the nation is pledged to the payment of the national delt, and Congress should pass all laws necessary for that purpose Resolved. That as the faith of the nation pleaged for the payment of the public lebt, and being in favor of equal taxation, rejusist that all property shall be equal taxed for the payment of the national debt. and for all State and municipal purposes. Resolved, That the repudiation of the rebel debt by the Southern States themselves, by solemn enactment, has relieved the people of the nation from all appre-hensions that they will ever be called on to pay any portion of the same, but if this

Resolved, That the nation owes to the brave men of our army and navy a lasting debt of gratitude for their heroic services n detense of the Constitution and Union, nd that while we cheri-h with tender afection the memory of the fallen braves, we pledge to their widows and orphans our entinued care and protection. Resolved, That we have heard with sin-ere regret of the death of Hon. Wm.

s not deemed sufficient, we hereby declare that no portion of that debt shall ever be and with our consent.

Johnston, late member of Congress from the 8th Congressional District-and deeply sympathize with the family of the deceased, and tender to them in their great affliction our heartfelt condolence. On motion of Hon. M. May it was ordered that the proceedings of this Convention be published in the Shield & Banner and OHIO STATESMAN. After a short speech from Hon. B. Burns on the political topics of the day, the Convention adjourned. HUGH GAMBLE, Prest. JAMES S. CRALL. Secretary.

The President and the Democracy. [Wash Cor. Cin. Gazette.] Democratic evening paper of this city, in a long and carefully written edi-torial article on the relations of the Demoratic party to the President, uses the folwing significant language: "President Johnson is the natural and inevitable leader of the Democracy in the great battle now going on for constitutional liberty. There s on the part of the Democracy, the most cordial tecling toward such Republicans as shall break loose from the trammels of faction and take their stand with us for the Constitution. We know no difference between such men as Cowan, Dixon, Norton, Doolittle, and others of like character, and our own accepted leaders. They deserve to be sustained and honored in their posttions, and they will be. We repudiate evmation of a third party to supersede the Democratic organization, or that he supposes such a scheme capable of accomplishment, even if it were desirable. Still less can we believe that he cherishes any purpose of so distributing the honors and patronage of his Administration that the labors of the only conservative organization in the land shall be permanently excluded from all participation therein. Rome was not built in a day. The Democracy are not starving for office, nor need they be in a hurry. They and all sensible men know that the President has hardly yet begun to consider, still less to act on these questions; out we have assurances that he will not overlook the great party on which he now eans for support."

FOUNDRY AND MACHINE SHOP.

L. B. DAVIES. MANUPACTURER OF

CROSS-CUT OR DRAG SAWS AND CIRCULAR SAWING MACHINES, A LCOTT, OR BROOM HANDLE A Lathes, Thrushing Machines, Mowers and Reapers, Iron Yautis and Safes, Sugar Mills, Mill Works, Horse Powers, Grating and Feneling, Brass and Iron Castings, &c., &c. Also, Agant for Pitt's Premium Separator, manu-factured at Dayton, Ohio.

Portable and Stationary Engines,

All Kinds of Repairing at Short Motice. Broad Street, Corner of State Avenue.

COLUMBUS, OHIO. Jans-dlyeod bruilt alreason to action and ware by the classic bland against a trees.

of breading the axia.